Customer Journey Map

Map out the customer's experience stage-by-stage, capturing their actions, touchpoints, thoughts, and feelings, along with process ownership and improvement opportunities at each stage.

Stage	Customer Goal	Customer Actions	Touchpoints	Customer Emotions	Pain Points	Opportunities
Awareness	Discover a solution to a problem	Searches online, sees ads, asks for recommendations	Social media, website, search engines, advertisements	Curious, interested	Low brand awareness, confusing messaging	Improve SEO, targeted ads, clear value proposition
Consideration	Compare available options	Reads reviews, compares prices and features	Website, reviews, blogs, email, sales team	Hopeful, cautious	Lack of information, difficult comparisons	Provide testimonials, FAQs, comparison charts
Purchase	Buy the product or service	Places order, completes payment	Online store, mobile app, checkout page	Excited, confident	Complicated checkout, payment issues	Simplify checkout, offer multiple payment options
Onboarding	Learn how to use the product	Creates account, follows setup instructions	Welcome email, tutorials, user guide, customer support	Motivated, sometimes confused	Poor onboarding experience	Interactive tutorials, onboarding emails, live chat
Usage	Use the product successfully	Regularly uses product, explores features	Product interface, mobile app, notifications	Satisfied, engaged	Bugs, missing features	Continuous improvements, personalized recommendations
Support	Resolve issues	Contacts customer support, searches help center	Help desk, chatbot, phone, email	Frustrated, relieved	Slow response times	Faster support, self-service knowledge base
Loyalty & Advocacy	Continue using and recommend the brand	Renews subscription, leaves reviews, refers others	Loyalty program, email campaigns, social media	Happy, loyal	Lack of rewards, poor follow-up	Referral programs, exclusive offers, customer appreciation
